SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board of Directors ("the Board") of Thriven Global Berhad ("Thriven") is collectively responsible for the oversight and overall management of the Company and its subsidiaries ("the Group"). To ensure the effective discharge of its functions and responsibilities, specific powers of the Board are delegated to the relevant Board Committees, Executive Committee and the Management Team led by the Group Managing Director. The Board has in place, business authority limits that outline the matters delegated to the Management Team led by the Group Managing Director. The authority limits are reviewed and revised as and when required, to ensure an optimal structure for efficient and effective decision-making in the Group. There is a schedule of matters reserved for the Board's decision, which includes the approval of corporate plans and budgets, acquisition and disposal of major investments, making changes to the management and control structure of the Company and addressing issues in respect of key policies, procedures and authority limits. The Executive Directors and the Management Team are tasked to ensure compliance with these decisions. The Board Committees are the Audit And Risk Management Committee ("ARMC"), the Nomination And Remuneration Committee ("NRC"), all of which operate within defined terms of reference. Members of the Executive Committee are the Executive Chairman, the Group Managing Director, the Executive Director and the Head of Group Finance &amp; Treasury. A Corporate Code of Conduct, which was formalised in 2013 by the Board and revised in May 2020 and November 2023, serves as a guideline for Directors, senior executives and other employees regarding the expected standards of conduct in business dealings. Directors and employees are required to uphold high standards of

	integrity in discharging their duties and to comply with the relevant laws and regulations. The Board Charter (the revised Board Charter was approved by the Board in August 2024), Corporate Code of Conduct, the Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policies and the Corporate Communication Policy (which was approved by the Board in November 2018, revised in February 2023 and November 2023), set out inter alia, the roles and responsibilities of the Board and Board Committees, the procedures for convening Board meetings, financial reporting, investor relations and shareholder communication. These documents will be reviewed and updated periodically in accordance with the needs of the Company and any new regulations that may have an impact on the discharge of the Board's responsibilities including the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance ("MCCG"). The Board sets key performance indicators for the Company before the beginning of each financial year and the performance of the Company and the Management will be reviewed by the Board at the end of each financial year. Strategic business planning is left to the Executive Directors and Senior Management of the Group, who in turn, provide an overview of the proposed plan before implementing the same, the resulting plan and update on key issues to the Board. The Board is kept informed of the plans and important developments via email, memorandum or circular for the Board's noting or approval, where applicable, and during Board meetings. The Board is also kept abreast of the Group's business performance through a comprehensive set of financial and business update reports; and updates on major business transactions presented by the Management. When required or necessary, Heads of Department will be invited to attend the Board meetings to facilitate direct communication as well as to answer or provide clarification on queries. The ARMC oversees the risk management framework of the Group. The ARMC assists the Board to fulfil its responsibilities with regard to risk governance and risk management in order to manage the overall risk exposure of the Group and advises the Board on areas of high risk and the adequacy of compliance and control procedures throughout the Group. The ARMC, with the assistance of the internal auditors, reviews the internal controls of the Group to maximise the protection of its assets and its shareholders' investment. The NRC are responsible to ensure that there is an effective and orderly succession planning for senior management. Although there is no formal (documented) Board or key senior management succession plan, the Company had identified its talent pool and constantly monitor and

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has established a Corporate Code of Conduct ("CCCd") to provide guidance for directors, senior executives and other employees regarding the standards expected in the conduct of business. Employee Conduct was addressed in the revised Employee Handbook approved by the Board in November 2019 and amended in May 2020. In compliance with Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission ("MACC") Act, the Company has adopted an Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy ("ABC Policy") to prevent corruption and unethical practices within the Group. The ABC Policy sets out the guidelines on how to deal with improper solicitation, bribery and other corrupt activities that may arise in the course of business. The Conflict Of Interest ("COI") Policy, which has been in place since November 2023, sets out the guidelines to manage COI (including potential, actual, perceived and persisting) involving all Directors and key senior management of the Company. This policy aims to avoid any COI situations that may arise in the performance of their duties, ensuring that business decisions are made in the best interests of the Company. The CCCd and ABC Policy is available on the Company's website at www.thriven.com.my. The CCCd, the ABC Policy and the COI Policy are reviewed periodically and as and when required to ensure that the standards of professional behaviour are updated and continue to be relevant.

Practice 4.1

The board together with management takes responsibility for the governance of sustainability in the company including setting the company’s sustainability strategies, priorities and targets.

The board takes into account sustainability considerations when exercising its duties including among others the development and implementation of company strategies, business plans, major plans of action and risk management.

Strategic management of material sustainability matters should be driven by senior management.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The sustainability in the Company is governed by the Board and led by the Company’s Group Managing Director, Encik Ghazie Yeoh bin Abdullah. The Company has a governance structure in place where the Board takes full accountability to ensure effective corporate governance across the Group which includes overseeing risks and internal controls that are also key functions of sustainability. In this respect, the Board are supported by a growing set of environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) policies and a capable team of senior management, department heads and project leads for sustainability implementation and performance reporting.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The sustainability in the Company is led by the Company's Group Managing Director, Encik Ghazie Yeoh bin Abdullah. He manages, provides direction, oversight and guidance throughout the Group to integrate sustainability considerations in the operations of the Group and implement sustainability related measures. He will also report and update the Board on material economic, environmental and social impacts.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	On 28 August 2024, the Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee were merged into one committee, namely the Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") in order to enhance its efficiency in the discussion of matters relating to appointment and remuneration of directors and senior management in a holistic manner. The NRC regularly assesses the experience, the tenure, and diversity required collectively for the Board and ensures that it is periodically refreshed so that it can discharge its duties effectively. NRC annually reviews the performance of all directors including those seeking re-election based on competency, preparedness and independence. Only those with satisfactory evaluation are recommended to the Board for re-election. The Directors' Fit and Proper Policy (which was approved by the Board on 30 June 2022 and revised in August 2024) serves as a guide to the NRC and the Board in conducting assessments on potential candidates for appointment as directors as well as existing directors who are seeking for re-election and re-appointment. The Directors' Fit and Proper Policy is available on the Company's website at www.thriven.com.my.

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has developed a policy which limits the tenure of its Independent Directors to nine (9) years and embraces the practice for retaining an independent director beyond nine (9) years and shall provide justification for doing so and seek shareholders' approval annually in that respect. If the Board continues to retain the Independent Directors after the twelfth (12th) year, in addition to providing justification as explained above, the Board will seek shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process, unless the said Independent Director wishes to be re-designated as non-independent non-executive Director which shall be decided by the Board. None of the Independent Directors has served more than a cumulative term of nine (9) years.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board believes that a truly diverse and inclusive Board will leverage the differences of its members, to achieve effective stewardship and in turn, retain its competitive advantage. In this respect, the Board and the Nomination And Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) take into account the current diversity in the skills, experience, age, race/ethnicity (cultural background) and nationality of the existing Board in seeking potential candidate(s). This helps to ensure an appropriate balance between the experience perspectives of the longer term directors and new perspectives that bring fresh insights to the Board. A formal procedure and process for the nomination and appointment of new Directors has been established in 2014, as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>i. The NRC will assess and identify the skills required for the Board of Directors, taking into consideration the diversity factor, including but not limited to age, race, gender, experience and skills.</li><li>ii. Candidates may be nominated by the Chairman, Director, senior management or shareholders of the Company.</li><li>iii. Obtain the profile/curriculum vitae and relevant information from the candidate and the NRC will conduct interview with the candidate (if necessary).</li><li>iv. Table the candidate’s profile/curriculum vitae and relevant information to the NRC for deliberation and assessment, based on the following:-<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Background, character, competence, integrity and time commitment (i.e. number of directorships and other positions that involve significant time commitment);</li><li>• Qualifications, skills, expertise and experience;</li><li>• Professionalism; and</li></ul></li></ol>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the candidate’s independence and ability to discharge such responsibilities as expected from them, will be evaluated.</li> </ul> v. The NRC will recommend the appointment to the Board of Directors for approval upon deliberation and assessment. vi. A formal invitation to join the Board of Directors will be extended by the Chairman after approval by the Board. vii. The Company Secretaries to prepare the relevant documentation required under the Companies Act, 2016, Bursa Main Market Listing Requirements and other applicable regulations for the candidate’s execution. viii. The Company Secretaries will then arrange for induction programme and Mandatory Accreditation Programme for the newly appointed Director. ix. The Company has adopted a Fit and Proper Policy on 30 June 2022 to codify the Company’s approach to the assessment of the fitness and propriety of the Directors and Key Senior Management of the Company prior to any appointment and re-election.

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Practice 5.7

The board should ensure shareholders have the information they require to make an informed decision on the appointment and reappointment of a director. This includes details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the board and to act in the best interests of the listed company as a whole. The board should also provide a statement as to whether it supports the appointment or reappointment of the candidate and the reasons why.

The board comprises at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board currently has one (1) female Director, this amounts to 16.7% (one female out of the total six Directors) female representation. The Board acknowledges the best practice of Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2021 (“MCCG 2021”) for Board to comprise at least 30% women on Board. In heeding this, there was a positive development for the Company in making greater strides towards notable gender diversity on the Board with the appointment of Ms. Cindy Toh Siu Mei on 5 August 2021. The Board is mindful that any gender representation should be in the best interest of the Company. Although the Company has not reached the 30% women representation target at Board level as recommended by the MCCG 2021, the Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the Group taking into account diverse perspectives and insights. The Board is of the view that it is important to recruit and retain the best available talent regardless of gender, ethnicity and age to maximize the effectiveness of the Board. The Board notwithstanding the view that diversity should be in tandem with expertise, experience and skills and not gender alone acknowledges the importance of the establishment of a gender diversity policy. Hence, the Nomination And Remuneration Committee has been tasked to look for suitably qualified female candidate when there is a vacancy.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: The Nomination And Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) performed the annual evaluations on performance of individual directors and the Board as a whole comprising performance evaluation of the Board and Board Committees; Directors’ self and peer evaluation; and self-assessment of independence performed by the Independent Directors. The company secretary compiled the results of all the three (3) evaluations mentioned above for the Nomination And Remuneration Committee’s deliberation.  The Directors completed the annual evaluation questionnaires on confidential basis. The results and comments by the Directors were then summarised and discussed at the NRC meeting held on 23 February 2026 and subsequently, reported to the Board at the Board meeting held thereafter.  The Board is satisfied with the results of the assessment. The Board views that the current size and the existing composition of the Board are sufficient and well balanced, cater effectively to the scope of the Company’s operations and there is appropriate mix of knowledge, skills, attributes and core competencies in the Board. As presently constituted, the Board has the stability, continuity and commitment as well as capacity to discharge its responsibilities effectively.
